ASCENDANT

First impressions, personal presence, and your approach to life.

16.2° · House 1

The Ascendant (Rising Sign) is your front door to the world - it shapes first impressions, your physical appearance, and the instinctive way you approach new situations.

TAURUS

Earth · Fixed · Venus

The Ascendant, or Rising Sign, is the sign rising on the eastern horizon at your birth. It is your chart's doorway into the world: how you enter unfamiliar situations, express your presence, and begin making contact with others. Its sign describes an instinctive approach to life, including qualities people notice before they know your private story.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You enter a situation by finding your footing. A steady manner and appreciation for what is tangible help others feel your reliability. Give yourself room to adapt without believing you must abandon the grounded rhythm that makes you feel like yourself.

MC MIDHAVEN

Vocation, public direction, reputation, and contribution.

26.5° · House 10

The Midheaven (MC) sits at the very top of one's chart - it represents one's public image, career path, and the legacy one is building in the world.

CAPRICORN

Earth · Cardinal · Saturn

The Midheaven, also called Medium Coeli or MC, is an angle connected with your public direction. It describes the contribution you want to make, the responsibilities you grow into, and what you become known for beyond your private world. Its sign gives character to your ambitions and vocation, whether that calling takes shape through paid work, leadership, or another meaningful role.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You want to build something that earns respect through substance and sustained effort. Responsibility gives your public direction structure. Define success in terms you can inhabit, so reaching a goal does not simply create another demand to prove yourself.

PERSONAL PLANETS

The personal planets - Mercury, Venus, and Mars - describe how one thinks, loves, and acts. These celestial bodies move quickly through the zodiac and give one's chart its unique personal flavor.

♿ MERCURY

Thinking, communication, learning, and understanding.

14.4° · House 12

Mercury governs how one's mind works - the way one thinks, learns, communicates, and processes information. It shapes one's intellectual style and how one expresses one's ideas.

TAURUS Earth · Fixed · Venus

Mercury is the storyteller and questioner in your chart. It describes how you gather information, make connections, and translate what is happening inside you into words. Its placement reveals your approach to learning and conversation — from the details that catch your attention to the way you make an idea understandable to someone else.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You think by making ideas tangible, testing them against experience, and taking time to reach a conclusion. Your words carry steadiness. Once you have decided, stay curious enough to notice when new information deserves another look.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

Your mind works behind the scenes, connecting impressions before you can put them into words. Solitude gives your thoughts room to take shape, and writing or creative work helps you express what ordinary conversation misses. Give yourself time to find the words; your clearest insights do not always arrive on demand.

PERSONAL PLANETS

♀ VENUS

Love, beauty, pleasure, and personal values.

27.8° · House 11

Venus describes what one loves and how one loves - one's taste, one's values, one's approach to relationships, and what brings one pleasure and a sense of beauty.

PISCES

Water · Mutable · Neptune

Venus describes what draws you closer — to a person, a beautiful place, or something you simply love doing. It reveals how you express affection, receive love, and recognise what feels worth cherishing. Its placement brings your tastes, relationship values, and sources of pleasure into focus.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You love through imagination, tenderness, and a longing for something that feels almost otherworldly. Small gestures become poetry, and you see beauty in people others overlook. Your challenge is loving the person in front of you as deeply as the possibility you see in them.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

Friendship and shared interests are important places for affection to grow. You enjoy the social world surrounding a connection as well as the connection itself. Make room for personal attention within the pleasures of belonging to a wider circle.

♂ MARS

Action, desire, assertion, and the use of energy.

8.4° · House 11

Mars is one's engine - it shows how one asserts oneself, pursues what one wants, handles conflict, and channels one's physical energy and ambition.

PISCES

Water · Mutable · Neptune

Mars is the part of your chart that turns wanting into doing. It describes how you pursue a goal, assert a need, express desire, and respond when something stands in your way. Its placement reveals what sets your energy in motion and how you handle the heat of effort, attraction, and conflict.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Your energy follows inspiration, emotional meaning, and an instinct for the right moment. Creative work gives it a natural outlet. A small, concrete starting point helps you move even when the mood you were waiting for has not arrived.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You put energy into friendships, group projects, and goals that require collective action. Shared purpose can be highly motivating. Make room for different methods so your initiative helps a group move rather than divides it over the route.

SOCIAL PLANETS

♃ JUPITER

Growth, opportunity, generosity, and the search for meaning.

7.1° · House 3

Jupiter points to where life feels generous and expansive - one's sense of meaning, one's philosophical outlook, and the areas where growth and opportunity come naturally.

CANCER

Water · Cardinal · Moon

Jupiter opens the window to a wider world. It describes where you look for possibility, what encourages your confidence, and how you seek meaning through experience. Its placement explores your relationship with learning, generosity, and belief, including the balance between an expansive vision and the practical limits that give it shape.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You find opportunity through care, belonging, and the creation of a supportive environment. Generosity feels meaningful when it helps someone feel safe enough to grow. Include yourself among the people whose needs deserve attention.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You grow through ordinary encounters, learning, and the generous exchange of ideas. Your immediate world contains more to discover than it first appears. Ask a thoughtful question before rushing to offer the broad explanation.

♄ SATURN

Responsibility, limits, discipline, and lasting achievement.

25.3° · House 9

Saturn represents one's biggest lessons - the areas where life demands discipline, patience, and hard-won mastery. It's where one builds lasting strength through effort.

CAPRICORN

Earth · Cardinal · Saturn

Saturn is the builder in your chart — the part concerned with what can stand the test of time. It describes how you meet responsibility, work within limits, and develop trust in your own abilities through practice. Its placement shows where patience and commitment matter, and where high standards need to leave room for being human.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You understand the weight of responsibility and the value of work that stands up over time. Authority develops through competence and integrity. Choose obligations deliberately so achievement does not become an endless requirement to prove yourself.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You want beliefs and knowledge with a firm foundation. Study and lived experience give your perspective substance. A framework becomes stronger when it can accommodate a new question instead of needing to remain untouched.

GENERATIONAL & TRANSPERSONAL

♊ NORTH NODE

Growth, emerging qualities, and a developing direction.

12.0° · House 10

The North Node points to one's soul's growth direction - the qualities one is here to develop in this lifetime, even if they feel unfamiliar or challenging at first.

AQUARIUS

Air · Fixed · Uranus

The North Node symbolises a direction of growth — qualities and experiences that ask you to stretch beyond a familiar response. It is a calculated point where the Moon's orbit crosses the ecliptic from south to north. Its sign and house describe what you are learning to practise, while the opposite South Node offers strengths you can bring with you.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Your growth asks you to contribute to a world larger than your own recognition. Creativity becomes richer through participation and difference. Bring your spark to a shared project without needing to control where every bit of light falls.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

Your growth asks you to choose a public contribution and take practical responsibility for it. Private security can support that step. Let yourself be seen doing work that matters before you feel perfectly established in the role.

♋ LILITH

Untamed desire, autonomy, instinct, and authenticity.

20.0° · House 7

Black Moon Lilith reveals one's untamed instincts, suppressed desires, and the wild power one must integrate rather than deny. It shows where one refuses to compromise one's authenticity.

SCORPIO

Water · Fixed · Pluto

Black Moon Lilith speaks to the parts of yourself that resist being made smaller for acceptance: desire, anger, independence, and the right to choose. Its placement explores where expectations meet your insistence on living honestly. The mean version used here is a calculated lunar-apogee point, representing the averaged direction of the Moon's farthest point from Earth, rather than a physical planet or asteroid.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

You want intimacy that can hold desire, complexity, and the truth beneath polite appearances. Your private life belongs to you. Power becomes clearer when attraction is matched by consent and closeness does not require either person to surrender their agency.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You resist relationships that ask for compliance in exchange for acceptance. Attraction brings questions of equality and autonomy into focus. Name what you want clearly so closeness can grow around two willing people rather than an unspoken arrangement.

HEALING & RELATIONSHIPS

CHI CHIRON

Vulnerability & Healing

12.2° · House 3

Chiron represents your deeper sensitivities - the areas where you may feel vulnerable or unsure of yourself. It explores how understanding these feelings can help you develop self-compassion and support others with similar struggles.

CANCER

Water · Cardinal · Moon

Chiron marks a tender thread in the chart — an area where vulnerability asks for understanding rather than another demand to be stronger. Its symbolism connects sensitivity with the wisdom that grows through meeting yourself with honesty and care. Its sign and house give that theme context; they invite reflection without telling you what experiences you must have lived through.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Belonging and the freedom to need care touch a tender place. Holding everything together can feel safer than asking to be held. Let trusted people know what would comfort you instead of making them guess from how much you give.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

Your voice and the experience of being understood touch a tender place. It is easy to mistake a difficult conversation for proof that you cannot express yourself. Give meaning more than one route through words, writing, and patient exchange.

DSC DESCENDANT

Relationships & Partnership

16.2° · House 7

The Descendant describes what you seek in close relationships and the qualities you are drawn to in others. It reveals how you approach partnership, cooperation, and the balance between your needs and someone else's.

SCORPIO

Water · Fixed · Pluto

The Descendant lies opposite the Ascendant, at the western horizon of your birth chart. It describes the territory of close partnership — what draws you towards another person and what you discover through sharing life with someone whose perspective differs from yours. Its sign brings the themes of attraction, cooperation, and mutual understanding into focus.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Partnership brings depth, loyalty, and the vulnerability of being truly known into focus. You want a connection that can hold the unpolished truth. Let steady trust carry some of the weight you are tempted to place on intensity.

ROOTS & CHANGE

IC IMUM COELI (IC)

Home & Emotional Roots

26.5° · House 4

The Imum Coeli represents your roots, private life, and sense of belonging. It explores your relationship with home and family, the foundations shaped by your early life, and what helps you feel emotionally secure.

CANCER

Water · Cardinal · Moon

The Imum Coeli, or IC, lies opposite the Midheaven and points towards the private foundations of your chart. It describes roots, belonging, and what helps you feel at home when public expectations fall away. Its sign explores the inner ground you return to for reassurance and the kind of private life that supports you from within.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

At your roots is a deep concern with belonging and the feeling of being safe enough to soften. Home carries emotional meaning beyond its walls. Build a refuge that welcomes your needs as fully as the needs of those you love.

♅ URANUS

Freedom & Change

9.5° · House 9

Uranus represents independence, originality, and the desire to do things differently. It shows where you question expectations, need freedom, and seek change when familiar ways of living feel too restrictive.

CAPRICORN

Earth · Cardinal · Saturn

Uranus describes the impulse to question the familiar and imagine another way. It brings independence, experimentation, and the need for room to be yourself into the chart. Its slow passage through each sign connects whole generations through themes of change; its house and aspects show where those themes meet your own need for freedom and renewal.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Your generation questions institutions, hierarchies, and the structures that define success. Original thinking looks for a way to make established systems work differently. The challenge is turning criticism into an alternative sturdy enough to use.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You seek ideas that open a different window on the world. Unconventional subjects and challenges to established belief keep your mind engaged. Stay willing to question the alternative explanation as closely as the conventional one.

TRANSPERSONAL PLANETS

♆ NEPTUNE

Dreams & Imagination

14.5° · House 9

Neptune represents imagination, intuition, and the longing for something beyond everyday life. It describes your dreams and ideals, while also showing where wishful thinking can make it difficult to see a situation clearly.

CAPRICORN

Earth · Cardinal · Saturn

Neptune gives the chart its dreams — the images, ideals, and longings that make life feel larger than its practical details. It describes imagination, compassion, and the search for a connection that reaches beyond words, alongside the temptation to fall in love with a possibility. Its sign carries generational themes, while its house and aspects bring inspiration and discernment into personal focus.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Your generation invests dreams in achievement, institutions, and the promise of building something significant. Inspiration seeks a lasting form. The challenge is recognising when an image of success has become more compelling than the life behind it.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

You seek a worldview that can hold imagination, wonder, and experiences beyond easy explanation. Spirituality or art can open that search. Keep discernment beside inspiration when an idea seems to promise a complete answer.

♇ PLUTO

Power & Transformation

16.5° · House 7

Pluto represents deep change and your relationship with power and control. It explores where you hold on tightly, what you find difficult to let go of, and how you rebuild when familiar patterns no longer serve you.

SCORPIO

Water · Fixed · Pluto

Pluto draws attention beneath the surface, towards the attachments, motives, and questions of power that shape meaningful change. It describes the process of examining what has become deeply rooted and deciding what can be carried forward. Its sign speaks to broad generational themes; its house and aspects locate more personal encounters with agency, trust, and renewal.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR SIGN

Your generation confronts secrecy, intimacy, and the forces people prefer not to discuss openly. Depth and psychological investigation are central themes. The challenge is using insight to understand power without becoming fascinated by control itself.

HOW IT AFFECTS YOUR HOUSE PLACEMENT

Partnership brings questions of trust and shared power into focus. You want connection with enough depth to hold difficult truths. Mutual agency makes intimacy stronger than any attempt to secure it through pressure or unspoken tests.
